Diana is a partner in the divorce and family team.

She is well known as one of London's divorce lawyer elite and advises clients on high value, high profile matters involving complex finances and international, cross border elements. Whilst she has taken cases before the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal, Diana is also a renowned mediator and negotiator. She co-founded the Family Mediators Association, to extend the range of mediation to include finances as well as child-related issues.

Diana has acted for clients in cases which have set legal guidelines for the rest of the industry. She is a highly intelligent person who fights hard for her clients, is a very good negotiator and settler of cases where possible.
