

Partner

Offices: London

Tel: +44 (0)20 7597 6020

Email: andrew.terry@withersworldwide.com

Education: University of Sheffield, B.A. (Hons) Ancient History • University of Sheffield, M.A. Prehistory and Archaeology

Admitted: England and Wales, 1984

Year joined: 2006

Year became partner: 2006

Overview

Andrew is experienced in all aspects of international corporate and UK domestic corporate tax (both direct and indirect). He has advised companies in the states of the former Soviet Union on their group structure prior to an IPO or trade sale.

He has extensive experience of various industry sectors including specifically telecoms, transport, oil and gas, mining and real estate.

'..an ideal choice for planning around family owned businesses.. a significant figure in international tax planning..'

Citywealth 2012

Highlights

- Group structuring for Kazakh companies in food and pharmaceutical industry
- Acting as a lead partner on the acquisition of 50.1 % of KazakhGold Group Limited by Jenington International Inc., an indirect wholly -owned subsidiary of OJSC Polyus Gold
- Advising Bitel LLC, leading Kyrgyz mobile provider, on the corporate reorganisation and a sale to a Russian Group
- Acting for a leading Kazakh construction company in connection with its potential IPO on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange
- Advising on the structuring of a proposed IPO of a Russian based telecoms company.
- Providing advice to a CIS based bank on worldwide share incentive arrangements.

Publications and speaking engagements

- Speaker at a conference on outbound Russian property investment - Hyatt, Moscow April 2007.
- Contributor to VAT Guide and Carebook.

On a personal note

Andrew enjoys cricket, horse racing, wine, Russian history and literature.

Citywealth
Leaders List 2012
RECOMMENDED