Overview

Kenneth specialises in transactional Intellectual Property (IP), Brands and Technology.

He has extensive experience of advising UK and international clients on these issues and works with a range of businesses and organisations across all sectors including luxury brands, digital commerce, technology, fashion, design and manufacturing. Kenneth also assists clients in the charities and not for profit sectors.

Kenneth's regulatory expertise includes advising on UK/EU data protection, freedom of information, e-commerce, financial services and competition regulation.

His previous experience includes acting as European General Counsel for a global on-line travel company, and as UK commercial counsel at a major software corporation.

Kenneth is recommended in Legal 500 and is listed in the 2011 edition of the World's Leading 'Technology, Media and Telecommunications' Lawyers.

On a personal note

In his spare time, Kenneth can be seen trying vainly to resurrect his musical and sporting career.
