Overview

Cliccare qui per la versione italiana

Vittorio provides assistance with Italian commercial and corporate matters involving multinationals, international and cross borders operations, start ups, corporate filings and business strategies.

He works extensively on the drafting of documents and contracts relating to acquisitions and commercial agreements in general (NDA, agency, distribution, manufacturing, licences, etc).

Highlights

- Advising one of the largest U.S. aerospace companies on all commercial matters concerning their Italian presence
- Advising an Italian public company in its de-listing from the Italian Stock Exchange
- Providing day-to-day assistance to a international group leader in the production and commercialisation of cosmetics and products containing hazardous substances
- Advising an Italian manufacturing group on the standardisation of their commercial structure and related implementation and drafting the bulk of their contractual templates

Publications and speaking engagements

- Lecturer on “Agents and Distributors – a UK & Italy Comparison”, part of the Master in Corporate and Commercial Law programme organised by “Il Sole 24 Ore”.

On a personal note

Vittorio enjoys travelling and sports.
