Katherine is an associate in the divorce and family team.

She advises on family law including divorce, pre and post-nuptial agreements, financial settlements and issues relating to children. She also has experience working on cases involving unmarried partners and their children.

Katherine has assisted a variety of clients, often advising high net worth (HNW) and ultra-high net worth (UHNW) individuals and families. Many of her cases involve trust structures and include multi-jurisdictional elements.
