Laura is an associate in the criminal litigation team.

She graduated from Queen Mary University of London with a First Class Bachelor's Degree in Law in 2017 and was admitted to the Singapore Bar in May 2020. Laura joined us after having previously had three internships with us from 2014 to 2016.

Laura's practice covers a broad spectrum of criminal litigation, including both white-collar and blue-collar criminal offences. These offences include but are not limited to market manipulation, murder, cheating, sexual offences, voyeurism, road traffic offences and offences under the Misuse of Drugs Act. She also has significant experience in criminal advisory work, including providing legal advice on cross-border issues, representing individuals under the Protection from Harassment Act and conducting internal investigations into employee misconduct and potential fraudulent activities. Laura has experience conducting Plead Guilty Mentions and appearing before the High Court for appeal matters.

In her free time, Laura likes to write and is now working on an anthology of poems for future publication.
