Ciara is a third seat trainee currently sitting in the Family team. She assists on all aspects of family law, including divorce, complex financial disputes including across jurisdictions, pre and post nuptial agreements and children matters.

Ciara previously completed a seat in Litigation and International Arbitration where she assisted in a number of international treaty and commercial arbitrations, together with working on public international law matters and ESG related developments. On the litigation side, Ciara has worked on a range of matters including commercial mediations, breach of contract cases and advising clients on equitable claims.

Ciara's first seat was in the Immigration team, within the Private Client and Tax department. During her time in Immigration, Ciara worked on a wide-range of immigration matters, including 'Appendix FM' married and unmarried partner visa applications, EU Settlement Scheme applications, human rights-based immigration applications and applications for naturalisation and registration as a British citizen.

Ciara has also assisted the Charities team with pro bono work, preparing an application to the Charity Commission and drafting the Articles of Association for a newly incorporated charity.
