Ciara is a fourth seat trainee currently sitting in the corporate team.

Ciara is involved in a broad range of corporate and commercial matters. She has assisted on a variety of M&A transactions, investor agreements and general corporate governance matters.

Prior to this, Ciara undertook a seat in the family team where she assisted on all aspects of family law, including divorce, complex financial disputes, pre-nuptial agreements and children matters.

Ciara also completed a seat in litigation and international arbitration where she assisted in a number of international treaty and commercial arbitrations, together with working on public international law matters and ESG related developments. On the litigation side, Ciara has worked on a range of matters including commercial mediations, breach of contract cases and advising clients on equitable claims.

Ciara's first seat was in the immigration team, within the private client and tax department. During her time in immigration, Ciara acted on both personal and employment related immigration matters.

Ciara has also assisted the charities team with pro bono work, preparing an application to the Charity Commission and drafting the Articles of Association for a newly incorporated charity. She has also carried out a range of pro bono work relating to climate change and ESG.
