Charlotte is an associate in our private client and tax team.

Charlotte specializes in income tax and trust planning for high-net-worth individuals, helping them structure their assets with personalized strategies to achieve tax efficient outcomes. She primarily works with international clients who are looking to move to the US as well as US income tax residents relocating abroad, and she has advised on a wide range of US and treaty-related tax issues. Charlotte also has experience with many immigration solutions for globally-oriented clients with multi-jurisdictional holdings.
