Rebecca is a fourth seat trainee working on the Commercial Real Estate team.

She has previously worked in the Private Client and Tax team working on international and domestic tax planning, including the creation and ongoing management of trusts. Rebecca sat in the Family division where she worked on children disputes and financial claims arising from divorce. In particular, she worked on an internal relocation matter and a number of urgently listed welfare disputes. In her third seat, she worked with the Trusts, Estates and Inheritance Disputes team on a broad range of contentious matters including will disputes, 1975 act claims and international trust litigation.
