Rob is an associate in the private client and tax team.

He is dual-qualified, maintaining practising certificates in both England & Wales and the British Virgin Islands.

He works with UK domiciled and non-UK domiciled high net worth individuals and advises on a broad range of tax, trust and succession matters with a particular focus on tax efficient investment structuring. Rob is experienced in assisting founders, investors and entrepreneurs in relation to the tax issues that arise from owning and investing in early-stage businesses. He also advises on tax issues for sports stars.

Rob completed his training contract at Withers LLP in London, and worked in the Commercial Real Estate, Corporate Tech, Private Client and Tax and Family teams.
