Andrea is an associate in the Private Client and Tax team.

Andrea's practice focuses on domestic and international taxation, wealth management, succession and estate planning, taxation of financial products and private insurances, tax planning for multinational groups and financial institutions, and transfer pricing.

He advises individuals on cross-generational transfers and multinational tax and estate planning, and taxation of trusts. He also assists corporations in many industries mainly with respect to international tax planning, restructuring and transfer pricing.

Track record

Online art dealer setting up an Italian company

Assisted an online art dealer in setting up an Italian company involved in pooling investments in art. The company would also offer NFTs. Our advice focuses on the opportunity of setting up a start-up or an innovative Small-Mid enterprise (SME) as well as on the VAT aspects of using a "margin scheme" and the eventual implications arising from the sale of NFTs.

Swiss bank tax investigation

Assistance to a major Swiss bank during an investigation of the US Department of Justice and New York DFS in relation to allegations of assistance in tax evasion by the bank's clients
