Nicola is a senior knowledge lawyer in the litigation and arbitration team.

She is responsible for keeping our litigators up to date with legal and procedural developments, managing their legal skills training, and ensuring that know-how and precedents are shared and maintained. Nicola provides technical support and training for litigators based in both London and the BVI and has a particular focus on the civil procedure, costs, litigation funding, privilege and disclosure, and settlement of disputes.

Before taking up a professional support role, Nicola acted for a range of UK and US clients in the banking and franchising sectors, and was accredited as a mediator by CEDR.
