

Felda Yeung

PARTNER | HONG KONG

FELDA.YEUNG@WITHERSWORLDWIDE.COM

+852 3711 1648

SECRETARY SHARON WONG

SHARON.WONG@WITHERSWORLDWIDE.COM

+852 3711 1730

Felda is a partner in the litigation and arbitration team.

Her practice covers all aspects of the dispute lifecycle, from giving strategic advice, seeking or resisting injunctive relief, trial or merits hearings, to enforcement and appeal matters. She is often praised by clients for her keen mind to find commercial solutions to address their objectives and priorities.

Furthermore, Felda handles employment cases, with clients ranging from international and local banks, SFC-licensed entities, accounting firms, law firms and C-suite executives. Her employment practice is focused on bonus claims, negotiating amicable exits and disputes regarding the validity and enforceability of post-termination restrictions, including seeking and resisting injunctive relief surrounding key individuals or teams of employees moving to a competitor. She is a trusted advisor for senior individuals and corporations in Hong Kong navigating post-termination restrictions and misappropriation of confidential information.

As a testament to her expertise, she authored Wolters Kluwer's Practical Guide on Hong Kong Employment Law, 6th edition.

Felda was elected a member of the Ciarb (EAB) Committee where she chairs the diversity sub-committee and is deputy chair of the programme sub-committee.

She also sits as an arbitrator and is on the HKIAC's List of Arbitrators, and on the panel of arbitrators for HKI Arb, eBRAM and AIAC.

A Japanese listed company

Represented a Japanese listed company to conduct an extensive investigation together with a Big-Four Accounting firm to investigate misconduct and compliance issues within its local subsidiary.

A large PE fund

Represented one of the largest PE funds in Korea to oppose an application to set aside an arbitration award in excess of US$130 million.

A multinational company

Represented a multinational corporation in obtaining urgent injunctive relief to prevent the disclosure of confidential information misappropriated by a former employee.

A team of employees

Represented a team of employees in resisting injunctive relief sought from their previous employer alleging breach of post-termination restrictions and confidentiality obligations.

Beneficiaries of a family trust

Representing beneficiaries of a family trust comprising of a business valued in excess of US$100 million.

Co-founder from multinational companies

Representing a co-founder of a group of multinational companies providing online learning platforms in a shareholders dispute.

Financial institutions and banks

Representing overseas and local financial institutions and banks such as POA Bank Limited, BTG Pactual, Umpqua Bank and Vancouver City Savings Credit Union in various High Court cases, including obtaining ex parte injunction applications in fraud and asset recovery actions and cybercrime matters.

High net worth individual and corporate entity

Representing a high net-worth individual and his corporate entity in defending substantive Hong Kong proceedings as well as assisting with cross-border litigation alongside Tier 1 firms in Dubai, Switzerland and Angola. The matter relates to contractual interpretation of a consortium agreement, breach of director's duties, breach of trust and knowing receipt and/or dishonest receipt, and also involves contempt proceedings in Hong Kong.

International accounting firms and law firms

Represented large international accounting firms and law firms in their highly sensitive and contentious partnership disputes and employment issues.

Liquidators and funder

Represented liquidators and a liquidation funder in a claim for fraudulent and dishonest breach of duties against various directors.

Experience

Employment

International arbitration

Commercial litigation

Admission

Hong Kong, 2013

Education

The University of Hong Kong, LLM, Arbitration and Dispute Resolution

The University of Hong Kong, PCLL, Law

The University of Hong Kong, LLB

Language

English

Memberships

Committee Member, Ciarb (East Asia Branch)
