Libbi is a second year trainee, currently in the fourth seat of her training contract with the Reputation Management team, where she is supervised by Jo Sanders and Caroline Thompson.

Libbi previously sat with the Corporate team, supervised by Mark Lynch. In this seat she assisted on a range of corporate matters, including share acquisitions, reorganisations, corporate court applications and buybacks. She also supported the Charities team on certain matters including Charity Commission applications.

Libbi's second seat was with the Trusts, Estates and Inheritance Disputes (TEID) team, supervised by Deborah Nicholls-Carr. In this seat she assisted on a range of matters, including claims under the Inheritance (Provisions for Family and Dependants) Act 1975, trust disputes and Court of Protection disputes.

Libbi's third seat was with the Family team, supervised by Joanna Lazarus. In this seat, she assisted on a mix of children, divorce and financial disputes, as well as with pre- and post-nuptial agreements.
