Michelle is a fiduciary accountant in the private client and tax team.

She prepares the required tax filings for both domestic and foreign trusts. This area of taxation involves reporting on foreign accounts and complex transactions including income taxation on distributions from foreign trusts, FBAR compliance and many other international tax concerns.

Within the estate practice, Michelle manages the estate probate process, prepares estate tax returns and the annual accountings required by the probate court.

Additionally, she has extensive experience in the preparation of non-profit, corporate, partnership and individual income tax returns.
