OPERATING AS WITHERS KHATTARWONG LLP IN SINGAPORE.

Yee Hoong is a partner in the private client and tax team and is a Singapore-qualified lawyer.

She advises companies, businesses and individuals on Singapore income tax, stamp duties, goods and services tax, the application of tax treaties and tax residency requirements. She also advises families and individuals on tax, trusts, wills and succession, gifts, philanthropy, migration and family office planning. Yee Hoong also acts for clients in applying for grant of representation, the administration of estates and posthumous estate restructuring.

She often works with clients with international perspectives and her practice often involves consideration of cross-border legal, conflict of laws and tax issues. Her unique background experience allows her to bring a multi-disciplinary approach to tailor a solution and integrated advice to fit the clients' needs.
