Last night the firm scooped 3 awards at the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) Private Client Awards, taking home awards in all three categories in which we were nominated:

- The CTSG team was named Contentious Trust and Estates Team of the Year
- Julia Abrey, head of the Elder Law Group, won Elder Client Law Professional of the Year
- North American Team of the Year.

The awards, which were held on 13 October in London, are intended to highlight excellence among private client lawyers, accountants, barristers, bankers and trust managers. Winners were selected by a panel of experts, which includes over 100 industry professionals across the globe.
