Withers is proud to announce the launch on 6 April 2015 of our legal alliance with Singapore law firm KhattarWong.

This new legal alliance will transform the scale and capabilities of Withers' services in Singapore and South East Asia.

The new alliance will be able to advise clients under Singapore, UK and US law and draws on an extensive network of contacts across South East Asia to assist clients with their business, personal and philanthropic activities in the region.

Withers KhattarWong will be created through the agreement of a Formal Law Alliance with KhattarWong, one of Singapore's largest and most well-established firms. KhattarWong was established in 1974 and has over 26 partners and 70 other lawyers working across skilled and experienced corporate, banking, litigation, IP and tax teams.
