The thorny issue of press regulation has been taking up many column inches in the newspapers since the Leveson Inquiry into press ethics got under way. Law Society Gazette media columnist Amber Melville-Brown, and Withers' Reputation Management team fellow member Rupert Cowper-Coles were asked to provide an update to the readers of the Gazette, which was published on 8 April 2013. The article can be accessed at the following link: www.lawgazette.co.uk/in-practice/leveson-overview
