This is evidenced by the recent activities of the Daily Mail and the Mail on Sunday concerning the deceased father of Labour leader, Ed Miliband. And in light of Monday's reported decision by the Privy Council sub committee to reject the Royal Charter on regulation proposed by the press, it appears that it agrees. In an article today for The Lawyer, Amber comments: www.thelawyer.com/dont-speak-ill-of-the-dead/3010761.article
