Suzanne Todd (partner in the family team) and Sue Medder (partner in the contentious trusts and succession team) recently explored what issues can arise in relation to Wills upon separation and divorce. Individuals in the context of divorce proceedings are already experiencing a rollercoaster of emotions and the prospect of considering what would happen and what arrangements need to be put in place should there be unexpected death during the process of divorce is usually not something which anyone wants to face. However, it is vitally important that the issues which arise are addressed and considered. Here is a link to the article 'Divorced from estate planning?' (first published on Lexis®PSL on 25 November 2013 – click here for a free 24 hour trial of Lexis®PSL) to find out more about the issues and how to deal with them.
