

Trusts - who holds the power? The Administrator (Zurich)

26 SEPTEMBER 2017

CATEGORY:
EVENTS

Event

Event Headline

We are delighted to host the fourth in a series of breakfast briefings exploring the roles of different power-holders in trusts. This event is will be hosted in Zurich, and also in Geneva on 27 September. Further details can be found below.

Event Office

London

<https://www.withersworldwide.com/en-gb/london>

enquiries.uk@withersworldwide.com

+44 20 7597 6000

Event Co-Ordinator

Paul Askew

<https://www.withersworldwide.com/en-gb/people/paul-askew>

paul.askew@withersworldwide.com

+44 20 7597 6388

The fourth briefing will consider the role of the Administrator:

- What is the role of the Administrator? Who makes the decisions?
- How should the Administrator interact with beneficiaries, the settlor, the trustees and others?
- Can the Administrator be indemnified?
- Where should trust documents be held?
- The Administrator and litigation

Please register your interesting in attending either above or below. Places will be filled on a first come, first serve basis.

Agenda

8.00am – Registration

8.30am – Seminar commence

9.30am – Close