

Masterpiece London: How technology has impacted provenance and authenticity in the art market

02 JULY 2019

Diana Wierbicki

PARTNER | US

CATEGORY:
EVENTS

Event

Event Headline

HOW TECHNOLOGY HAS IMPACTED PROVENANCE AND AUTHENTICITY IN THE ART MARKET

Event Office

London

<https://www.withersworldwide.com/en-gb/london>

enquiries.uk@withersworldwide.com

+44 20 7597 6000

Event Co-Ordinator

Erika J. Galarneau

<https://www.withersworldwide.com/en-gb/people/erika-j-galarneau>

erika.galarneau@withersworldwide.com

+1 212 848 9810

Event Speakers

Diana Wierbicki

Anna Farmer

Where

The Lecture Theater at Masterpiece Fair, South Grounds, The Royal Hospital, London, SW3 4LW

When

Tuesday, July 2, 2019, 7 pm

Event Description

Diana Wierbicki, global head of art law, and Anna Farmer, a member of the commercial, intellectual property and technology team at global law firm Withersworldwide, discuss how technology has impacted provenance and authenticating art with representatives from two art technology companies, Steve Cooke of Tagsmart and James Garfinkel of Intaglio Blockchain.

Click here to register (please note the discussion is free, however a separate ticket to enter the Masterpiece London Art Fair will be required).

Authors

Diana Wierbicki

PARTNER | NEW YORK

Art law

 +1 212 848 9857

 diana.wierbicki@withersworldwide.com