Our expertise and the advice we offer to high net worth individuals has recently been recognised in the latest release of Chambers and Partners' HNW rankings. The guide, which helps wealthy families and individuals identify law firms that best suit their global needs, regards Withersworldwide as a leading firm for:

- global private wealth law;
'top-notch in the field,' 'a one-stop shop for cross-border clients,' 'they deliver worldwide advice better than anyone else.'
- private wealth disputes;
'They can deal with the biggest disputes as they have the depth and really good strength at all levels.'
- family and matrimonial law;
'They are a top-tier firm extremely focused on their client outcomes...the strength in depth is unparalleled'
- high value residential real estate;
'The team has all the experience and knowledge to deal with any situation, however complicated, under one roof'
- art and cultural property; and
'they handle large acquisitions and are good on big transactions,' 'they can do this work for a global client base'
- defamation and reputation management.
'They handled urgent issues very quickly and mobilised the team very fast,' 'when a fire needed to be put out, they did it, and did so very quickly'

Understanding your needs and finding creative solutions to complex cross-border business and personal issues is at the heart of what we do. We are delighted to be recognised for our international advice and the results we achieve for our clients across the world.
