Recent research by Luxury Portfolio International suggests that personal wealth globally has grown by 15% and the number of HNWI's has increased by 25% over the past four years.

This increase, combined with a general sluggishness in mainstream residential markets around the world, means that this is an opportune time for these individuals to invest in second or third homes.

Wherever the property is located, Withers can project manage your acquisition and provide advice on any issues relating to the use and ownership of the property that you and your family may need to consider.
