Chambers and Partners High Net Worth – a publication designed specifically to help successful individuals find the right law firm for their needs – has, once again, recognised our expertise in this area in their 2020 guide, identifying Withersworldwide as leading firm for:

- global private wealth law
'Withers has a longstanding reputation for its high-quality private client work for high net worth individuals. The firm is outstanding and fully justifies its reputation as one of the leading firms in this area. It provides service of the highest quality.'

- art and cultural property
'Withers provides advice on all aspects of art law and handles contentious and non-contentious matters on a domestic and international basis. They are a high-profile firm and do lot of work in the space, both on litigation and transactional matters.'
- defamation and reputation management
'Withers has a world-class team handling defamation matters both domestically and internationally. They have always been very sensible and pragmatic, but also knowledgeable and efficient...if you have them on a case, you know everything is sorted.'

Finding creative solutions to complex cross-border business and personal issues is at the heart of what we do. We pride ourselves on our understanding of global markets and how these affect the needs of each individual client, and are delighted to be recognised for the results we achieve for high-net-worth clients around the world.
