

Withers lawyers prominent in American Bar Association RPTe leadership appointments

10 AUGUST 2020

CATEGORY:
ARTICLE

The Real Property, Trust and Estate (RPTe) Law Section of the American Bar Association is a leading national forum for lawyers with currently over 25,000 members. We are proud to announce that several of our Withers attorneys were appointed to leadership roles for the upcoming bar year. We congratulate:

- James Dougherty: Vice-chair for the committee of the Non-Tax Issues in the Administration of Trusts and Estates and National CLE vice chair for the TE CLE Standing Committee
- Marissa Dungey: Vice-chair on the Business Planning Group and eCLE Vice-chair for the TE CLE Standing Committee
- Genevieve Larson: Vice-chair for the committee on Digital Assets and Vice-chair for the committee on Emotional & Psychological Issues in Estate Planning
- Diana Wierbicki: Chair of the committee on Art & Collectibles

In addition to these leadership appointments, one of our associates, T. Sandra Fung was appointed to RPTe's Fellows Program as a Trust & Estate Fellow, The accolade is particularly prestigious as Sandra is one of only five young attorneys to be appointed.

Authors

James I. Dougherty

PARTNER | GREENWICH, NEW YORK

Private client and tax

 +1 203 974 0333

 james.dougherty@withersworldwide.com

Marissa Dungey

PARTNER | NEW YORK, GREENWICH

Private client and tax

 +1 203 328 2233

 marissa.dungey@withersworldwide.com

Genevieve M. Larson

PARTNER | SAN FRANCISCO

Private client and tax

 +1 415 872 3205

 genevieve.larson@withersworldwide.com

Diana Wierbicki

PARTNER | NEW YORK

Art law

 +1 212 848 9857

 diana.wierbicki@withersworldwide.com

T. Sandra Fung

ASSOCIATE | NEW YORK

Private client and tax

 +1 212 848-9814

 sandra.fung@withersworldwide.com