We are delighted to announce that our Private Client and Tax team in Japan was named ‘ Tax and trusts law firm of the year ’ at the recent ALB Japan Law Awards 2020 organized by Asian Legal Business (ALB), an internationally-recognized legal journal and a part of the Thomson Reuters Group.

This is our first win at the awards, and a fine testament to excellent client services to our long-lasting clients in Asia and beyond.

The Japan team was also finalists under the following categories:

- Foreign Lawyer of the Year – Eric Roose
- Investment Fund Law Firm of the Year
- Real Estate Law Firm of the Year
- Rising Law Firm of the Year

The results and complete list of winners can be found here on the ALB website.

It is our great pleasure that our dedication and hard work has been recognised at the ALB Japan Law Awards, and we would like to thank our clients and peers for this recognition.
