Andrew is an associate in the litigation and arbitration team.

Andrew is an associate in the litigation and arbitration team, specializing in media law and reputation management. He has been recognised as an 'associate to watch' by Chambers and Partners HNW 2020 and Legal 500, as well as a 'Rising Star' in the Spear's Reputation Management Index 2019

He has assisted clients with a wide range of media issues including defamation, privacy, harassment, 'right to be forgotten' applications, contentious data protection, phone-hacking and non-disclosure agreements. Recognising the developing inter-relationship between tax and media issues, Andrew also advises a broad range of clients on contentious tax litigation and investigations.

His clients include those in international sport (ranging from footballers and agents to directors of international sporting governing bodies), world-renowned fashion designers and editors, artists, ultra-high net worth CEOs, entrepreneurs and respected authors. He has commented on legal issues on the BBC and in the mainstream media.

He has experience in a variety of international and domestic commercial disputes including cases in the English courts and mediations. He has also advised clients with contentious bankruptcy matters, contractual disputes, fraud, mis-selling claims, shareholder disputes and professional negligence.
