Bertie is a partner in the private client and tax team and focuses on farms and estates.

His practice focuses on advising landowners and estates on a wide variety of management and succession issues including the sporting, agricultural and commercial aspects. Bertie also advises forestry investors and increasingly clients who are looking at carbon capture opportunities and biodiversity offsetting.

Bertie has extensive experience in advising clients looking to purchase estates, farms, and country houses either as part of a portfolio or as first time buyers. This advice includes structuring advice where appropriate.
