Natalia is an associate in the litigation and arbitration team.

She works on a broad range of heavyweight commercial disputes, both international and domestic, including commercial litigation, mediation, arbitration, regulatory offences and bankruptcy. Natalia has a particular interest in art law and is involved in contentious art matters in the London office. As a fluent Russian speaker, a large part of her practice focuses on disputes involving Russia and the CIS. She is a member of our Russia, Ukraine and CIS team

Natalia trained at Withers for two years, working in both contentious and non-contentious departments. Whilst with the corporate team, she assisted with a range of corporate and commercial matters, including private equity, luxury brands and shareholder disputes. This experience has given her a keen understanding of the realities of commercial transactions, which now informs her approach to dispute resolution.
