Samantha is a senior legal associate in the private client and tax team.

She advises individuals and families on matters relating to their trusts, family governance/constitution and family/shareholders' agreements. She also assists with establishing family offices, private trust companies and family charities. She helps clients with developing efficient holding structures and succession plans, not just for their personal bankable wealth but also for their real estate investments, and their family businesses.

Prior to joining Withers KhattarWong, Samantha was an associate in a boutique private client firm which regularly advised and represented private banks and ultra high net worth individuals on complex trust structuring and in contentious trust matters.

Samantha has been recognised by the Private Client Global Elite as one of its 'Rising Leaders' in its 2022/2023 private client directory.
