Shriveena is an associate in the family team.

Shriveena's practice encompasses advising and acting for clients in all aspects of matrimonial law, with a specific emphasis on complex cross-jurisdictional divorces. She has represented clients at all levels in the Singapore Courts in matrimonial disputes regarding jurisdiction, international child relocation, custody, care and control of children, maintenance and complex financial division. She also regularly advises clients on pre, and post nuptial agreements.

Aside from her experience in matrimonial law, Shriveena has considerable experience in commercial litigation. This exposure has equipped her with a keen eye to detail, and a wealth of experience dealing with complex cross-border issues relating to trusts, shareholders' disputes, property disputes, and insolvency.

Shriveena is dedicated to working with her clients to offer them pragmatic and sound solutions. While she enjoys advocating for her clients' interests in Court, she also enjoys helping her clients reach out-of-Court solutions with their best interests at heart.
