New photo on its way...

Misha is a trust and probate administrator.

Misha deals with the management of a broad range of trusts and encompasses dealing with administrative issues as well as tax compliance, specifically, Inheritance Tax, Capital Gains Tax and the taxation of trust income. She liaises closely with intermediaries such as accountants, investment managers and agents to provide a comprehensive service to trustees. In addition, Misha also works with Executors and Administrators in relation to the administration of estates. This involves complex post-death Inheritance Tax reporting and dealing with the steps required to all for post-death administration, variations and tax reporting.
