Filippo is a senior associate in the private client and tax team.

He mainly focuses on tax issues related to individuals, business family reorganisations and taxation of financial transactions.

He also advises Italian and foreign HNWIs on international taxation, family wealth management, trusts and estate planning.

He has gained considerable experience in advising clients wishing to take advantage from the Italian tax regime for so-called 'res-non-dom', 'impatriati' and other specific tax incentives for persons relocating to Italy.
